Dear Mr. Dulles:

Thank you for your letter about the Gisevius review. I haven't yet seen Franklin Ford, who lives in Boston, and therefore I have no explanation to offer as to why he should, as you aptly put it, go to the "Toonerville Trumpet" rather than to the Supreme Court for his evidence. Do let me know if you wish us to publish a letter or if there are any other developments. Did I say that I am sorry for the make-up accident that lifted the most telling phrase of the review -- "whatever the outcome of World War II, Mr. Gisevius would have been on hand to congratulate the victors" -- out of its qualified context and into the limelight underneath the cut of Gisevius? I didn't see that until it was too late.

Sincerely yours,

Courtlandt Canby,
Assistant Editor.
